

Student Health, Safety & Mental Health Support Policy

(Includes Addiction & Overdose Supports – Naloxone Compliance)

Student Health, Safety & Well-being Policy

1. Purpose

SGIC is committed to promoting student health, safety, mental well-being, and providing access to essential supports including addiction and overdose prevention resources.

2. Health & Safety Services

SGIC provides:

- Emergency response protocols
 - First aid trained staff
 - Local clinic and hospital referrals
 - Public health guidance and compliance
-

3. Mental Health Supports

Students have access to:

- Confidential mental health counselling referrals
- Crisis intervention contacts
- Stress management workshops
- Community mental health resources

Emergency Mental Health Support:

911

4. Addiction & Overdose Prevention Supports

SGIC actively supports overdose prevention by providing:

- Naloxone training resources
- Information on free Naloxone kits available at pharmacies and public health clinics
- Emergency overdose response guidance

Students can obtain free Naloxone kits from:

St. Paul's Hospital
<https://www.providencehealthcare.org>
(604) 806-9090
1081 Burrard St, Vancouver, BC V6Z 1Y6
Urgent Care / Walk in clinic:
Vancouver City Centre Urgent and Primary Care Centre (UPCC)
<https://www.vch.ca>
(604) 416-1811
188 Nelson Street Vancouver, BC V6B 1A9
